Work Hours & High Point: (Louann Schloss)

Janice- work hours were updated, many members need more hours before the end of the month, check the website

Grounds and Maintenance: Jim and Dennis

Jim-there is a lot to do, there is always raking to do

Shelley-the trees by the Dressage area are dropping leaves into the arena, asking if members can rake around the arena

Janice-asking if there is still paint scraping to do and when the dodge sign can get put back up

Jim-hopefully the sign will be up this weekend. No paint scraping right now, Jim is working on it

New Business:

Evacuation Meeting Report: Sam & Michael

Michael-the meeting was designed for individual properties to get prepared. He talked to Betty Washburn at Lakeside to get their copy of the County Animal Services MOU (Memorandum of Understanding). Michael got permission to alter the MOU for PVRA. Michael says email him if they have questions

Trish-she gives a presentation about making sure everything is labeled, have a pouch with contact info, have a water bucket. She would like to do a presentation for PVRA to give more detail. Michael and Trish are thinking of several presentations.

Open Comments

Shelley- the Coyotes have been very wandering close to the arenas, be careful, don't let your dogs loose
