Horse Tales

The Monthly Newsletter of Poway Valley Riders Association

Turnout Etiquette

As we come into the brisk, breezy, cool days of Spring, horses become extra frisky and love (and need) those turnouts!

But, we need to be careful when we let them go—snorting and bucking and ripping around—that we don't cause problems for our fellow riders. All that energy can be contagious, and may cause another rider to have trouble controlling his or her horse. Before turning your horse loose, please check the grounds and arena for nearby mounted riders, and ask before turning your horse out.

Also, it's hard to to believe it, but soon the rains will be gone and we will have to resume using the water truck to control dust on the grounds. The water truck has the right of way, so don't get in the way. Ω

Old Business

Ring 1 work party: April 6-9; need workers to help tear down the fence and install new material on arena. Jay has all the materials. If you need work hours, this is a great event. Need to get it done so it doesn't impact group activities in that arena. Starts at 9:00 a.m. on those days. Jay has most of the tools and materials to prime and paint.

Traffic Control: AJ working on getting information from city.

New Business

Arena Etiquette/Safety: Shelley. We have a lot of great new people; but we may need to go through some basic rules in Horse Tales. Turn outs: ask permission if there are people riding, especially if there are subgroups riding. Gymnastic lines: we set the outside warm up area to keep the footing from being torn up in Ring 2. Gymnastics will tear it up and make it too deep. Watch that horses don't damage jumps. Watch your horse. Let board know if standards break, so shows have the supplies needed.

Sam: Gymnastic ring 2. Rides a green horse and wants an arena enclosure to keep the situation safe. Rode multiple days; the footing is not being dragged. And it wasn't dragged for the fun show. We don't seal the arenas before the rain comes.

Janice: Set up a line; just break it down to save wear and tear on the footing.

Sam: Do we have someone to drag the arenas during the week? How do you get trained to drag? Board will work towards organizing a class.

Jay: It will take a month for operators to learn and be consistent.

Shelley: If Jay doesn't feel it's being done right, you have every right to let the board know it's doing more damage than good.

Safety issue: Maggi. If we have non-PVRA groups coming on the grounds, we must have a PVRA member there when they are setting up. Jay came out 15-20 minutes later.

Sam: Board member will be present for future events.

Old items: AJ cleaned out the drill container and found some items that are not needed, and matching tack. Per Nancy, the club purchased the old tack from 1970s and turquoise tack. Contact Ingrid at POVA as a donation for tax write-off. Board will discuss at board meeting to decide.

Adjournment: Motion made by Nancy to adjourn at 7:44 p.m. and seconded by Ann. Adjourned. Ω
